Welcome to the Arklow Group of Parishes!

We are a group of three Church of Ireland (Anglican/Episcopalian) churches located in south County Wicklow and north County Wexford on the east coast of Ireland.

St. Saviour's Church is situated in a prominent position at the top of Arklow town.

Inch Parish Church lies 9 kilometres south of Arklow, just over the Wexford border.

St. Brigid's Church, Kilbride, is on the Beech Road, the road to Avoca from Arklow.

Please click on the church to find out more about each parish.
